

SECTION "J"
PERMITS

J-01 GENERAL

Contractor shall be responsible for compliance with all provisions of the permits, including sufficient notification to the proper agencies before work begins.

If there is a difference between the permit requirements and the Drawings and Specifications, Contractor shall request, in writing, a clarification from BCPUD.

If, in the course of construction, other permits are required, it will be Contractor's responsibility to obtain them, comply with the conditions and pay all fees therefor.
